ABOUT GCT, COIMBATORE

Government College of Technology, Coimbatore formerly known as the Arthur Hope College of Technology, was started in July 1945 to give high priority to Technical Education. The institute was renamed as Government College of Technology and affiliated to University of Madras in 1951. The institute offers nine UG and eleven PG Programme with recognized research supervisors to pursue M.S. (by Research) and Ph.D. Programme. The institute was granted full autonomy for all the UG and PG courses from the academic year 1987-88. Each department has well qualified faculty members and excellent infrastructural facilities. The institute received TEQIP funds in Phase I, II and III of MHRD project. The institute is accredited by NAAC with 'A' grade.

ABOUT FDTC CENTRE

The Faculty Development Training Centre (FDTC) was established in the year of 2019 to provide technical trainings to Engineering and Polytechnic college faculty members by Tamil Nadu State Government. It is equipped with sophisticated smart classrooms and tutorial rooms. It provides boarding and lodging facilities to resource persons and participants during the training Programme. The Programme is organized to enhance the teaching skills of faculty members.

ABOUT UHV CELL, TPGIT VELLORE

The Universal Human Values (UHV) Cell at TPGIT, Vellore, is dedicated to fostering holistic education and nurturing value-based living among students, faculty, and staff. The cell integrates human values and ethics into technical education, promoting harmony within the individual, the family, society, and nature. Through workshops, interactive sessions, and value education programs, the Cell encourages self-awareness, empathy, and responsible behavior. It enhances ethical understanding, mutual respect, and social responsibility in alignment with AICTE's Universal Human Values initiative.

By cultivating a sense of purpose and social consciousness, the UHV Cell promotes a campus culture that upholds both professional excellence and humane conduct, shaping engineers who contribute to society.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of this FDP on Universal Human Values is to enable faculty members to integrate human values into the teaching-learning process and foster ethical awareness through self-exploration. It aims to shift focus from academic performance to responsible and meaningful living by understanding harmony within self, family, society, and nature. The programme supports faculty in conducting value-based discussions and nurturing trust, respect, and mutual prosperity in educational environments. It prepares educators to act as co-explorers in value education and to build an empathetic academic community. By developing humane perspectives and responsible conduct, the FDP contributes to creating a just and sustainable society rooted in values.
